

Congressional Security Sensitive Record

This document remains a Congressional record in its entirety, and disposition and control over this record lies exclusively with the Architect of the Capitol (AOC). This record is not a record or property of the requesting agency or organization for the purposes of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) or any other law. This document contains information related to a highly sensitive security system of the United States Congress. Any information related to the security of Congress is under the sole control of Congress and cannot be released to any third party, including the public. The requesting agency or organization agrees to hold such information in confidence. By retaining this document, the requesting agency or organization also agrees not to disclose any such information to any third party without the prior written consent of the AOC, and agrees to forward all FOIA requests for information concerning this document to the AOC for resolution. The requesting agency or organization further agrees that its internal disclosure of the information contained in this document shall be only to those employees, agents, or subcontractors having a need to know such information.
